

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The success of our various ministries depends on our members who generously volunteer their time and talents. We understand that sometimes people hesitate to become involved because they simply don't know where they could be needed. So we've put together a list of the different areas that are always in need of additional help. As you'll see, no matter what your skills and talents are or how much time you have, there's a place for you!
